

The Project

This project aims to provide an accurate record of Asian life and migration in the UK, with real life stories, historic information and culture examples of life growing up in the UK.

Growing up as a British Asian or the Asian contribution to the World Wars, is not regularly discussed, documented or covered in the media, schools or general literature. So we aim to increase awareness for all site visitors and help share stories of general British Asian life in the UK.

Main Objectives;

- To be a reference site for British Asian History
- Document real life stories on life and migration
- Growing up as a British Asian in 1960's, 70's, 80's & 90's
- Awareness of Asian involvement in World War 1 and 2
- Provide a time line of major British Asian Events
- Share photos, documents and media

This is an ongoing project, so please contribute and come back regularly to watch as the site .

We Need Your Help !

Asianmigration.org is a not for profit Social enterprise, so we need your help for the site to grow and become a reference site.

How You Can Help

- Real Stories - We need your stories from parents, grandparents on life and migration to the UK. A form is available to help you capture information.
- Photos - We need you to scan and send pictures of real events and life. If you can't scan we can help.
- Videos - We need old movies and videos to share on the site.
- Share - Please spread the word we have no advertising funds.
- Sponsorship - We need businesses to sponsor or advertise on our site.
- Donate - We are not for profit and have limited funds, any donation is welcome.
